

Name _____ Date _____

Great Expectations by Charles Dickens

Author _____

of Pages _____

Main Characters _____

Setting(s) _____

Introduction - How does the book begin?

Point of View - From what point of view is this story told? Do you think this point of view was the best to tell the story from? Why or why not? How would the story be different if it was told from a different point of view?

Conflict - What are some of the major problems that Pip has to deal with throughout the novel? (The main focus should be on those surrounding his "great expectations.") What are some of the problems that other characters face as well?

Rising Action - How does Pip deal with his problems? How does Pip's character begin to change? What effect do other characters have on Pip?

Discovery - What are some of the things that Pip discovers about himself and about others throughout the story? What are some of the things that others discover about Pip throughout the story?

Climax - What is the turning point of the story?

Falling Action - How do the characters resolve their problems?

Resolution - How does the story end?

What did you like best about the story? What did you like the least?

If there was one thing you could change about the story, what would it be?

Would you recommend this book for others to read? Why or why not?
