

Name _____ Date _____

Merlin by Jane Yolen

Author _____

of pages _____

Main Characters _____

Secondary Characters _____

Setting _____

Introduction - What is happening in the story when we are first introduced to Merlin?

Setting- In your own words, tell how the setting of the story makes it more interesting.

Point of View- From whose point of view is the story told? How might the story change if Merlin was telling his own story?

Character- What is one word that you think best describes Merlin? Give three examples from the book that support your choice.

Conflict- What is the major conflict that Merlin deals with throughout the novel?

Rising Action- What steps did Merlin take to solve this problem?

Climax-What was the turning point in the story? How can you tell that this would be the point where the story would shift?

Resolution- How does Merlin end?

If you could continue the story from the ending, what events would you add?

What is a lesson that you have learned from the story? Explain how you can use this lesson in your everyday life.

Would you recommend this book to others to read? Why or why not?

What did you find to be the most surprising part in the story? What would you have changed?
