

Name _____ Date _____

Sixth Grade Can Really Kill You..but only if you let it! by Barthe DeClements

Author _____

Number of Pages _____

Main Characters _____

Setting _____

Introduction: How does the book begin, and what conflict is introduced right away?

Point of View: From what point of view is this story told? Explain why you think this point of view is best for this story.

Character: Who is the main character? How would you describe her? Include what you like and what you don't like.

Conflict: Identify the major conflict or problem that confronts Helen as the main character. Identify other conflicts faced by Helen and her friends.

Rising Action: How does Helen begin to solve the major conflict? What role did her father play in helping her along the way?

Climax: What is the turning point in the story?

Falling Action: How is Helen's problem finally solved?

Resolution: How does this novel leave the reader with a feeling of hope?
