

Name _____ Date _____

Sunrise Over Fallujah by Walter Dean Myers

Author _____ of pages _____

Main Characters _____

Secondary Characters _____

Setting _____

Point of View- From whose point of view is the story told? How was this an effective way to see war?

Character- Describe Robin's personality. How is he different from the other soldiers in his unit?

Character- In what ways does Robin's view of war change throughout the story? Does he ever adjust to the loss of life that happens in war?

Setting- How does the climate of Iraq affect the soldiers? Are they able to adjust to this change in temperature and conditions different from the United States?

Conflict- Robin has to deal with the conflict of war. What is the internal conflict that Robin dealt with throughout the novel? Explain his struggles and feelings.

Rising Action- What steps does Frankie take to solve this problem?

Climax-What is the turning point in the story? How can you tell that this would be the point where the story would shift?

Resolution- What goes disastrously wrong on their last mission?

Why do you think the author included the letters that Robin wrote home? Do you believe that this helped the reader to form a relationship with Robin?

What is a major theme of the novel? Use an example from the book that helped you choose this theme.

Would you recommend this book to others to read? Why or why not?

What did you find to be the most surprising part in the story? What would you have changed?
