

Name _____ Date _____

That Was Then, This Is Now by S.E. Hinton

Author _____

of pages _____

Main Characters _____

Setting _____

Introduction - How does the book begin?

Foreshadowing - Foreshadowing is a warning or indication of a future event. How does the author use this technique in the novel? When is foreshadowing most and least effective? Use specific examples from the novel.

Tragedy - Literary tragedy is a work of literature that contains tragic events and has an unhappy ending. Is this novel a tragedy? Use specific examples from the novel to support your answer.

Theme - Themes are the fundamental and often universal ideas explored in a literary work. Betrayal is a major theme in the novel. Discuss three specific examples of betrayal.

Another theme in the novel is that of youth violence. Give four examples of youth violence as it is portrayed in the novel. How are these examples realistic to youth violence in today's society? How are these examples unrealistic?

Characters play a central part of any literary work. Choose any main character in the novel, and analyze the character for his or her realistic portrayal. Give specific examples as to why you think this character could be an example of someone you would see in today's world.
